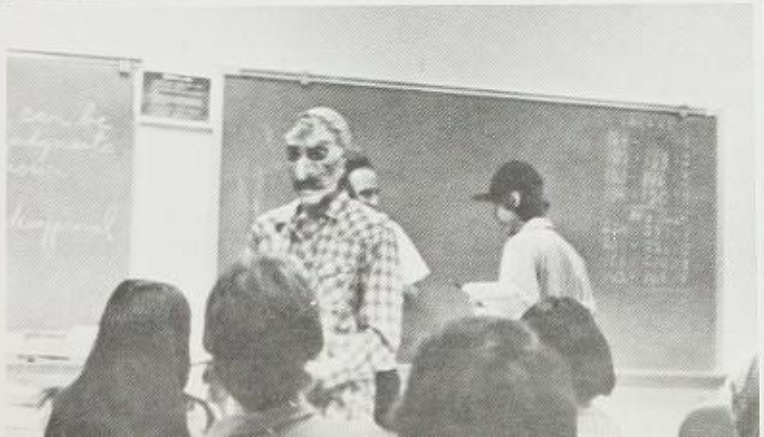
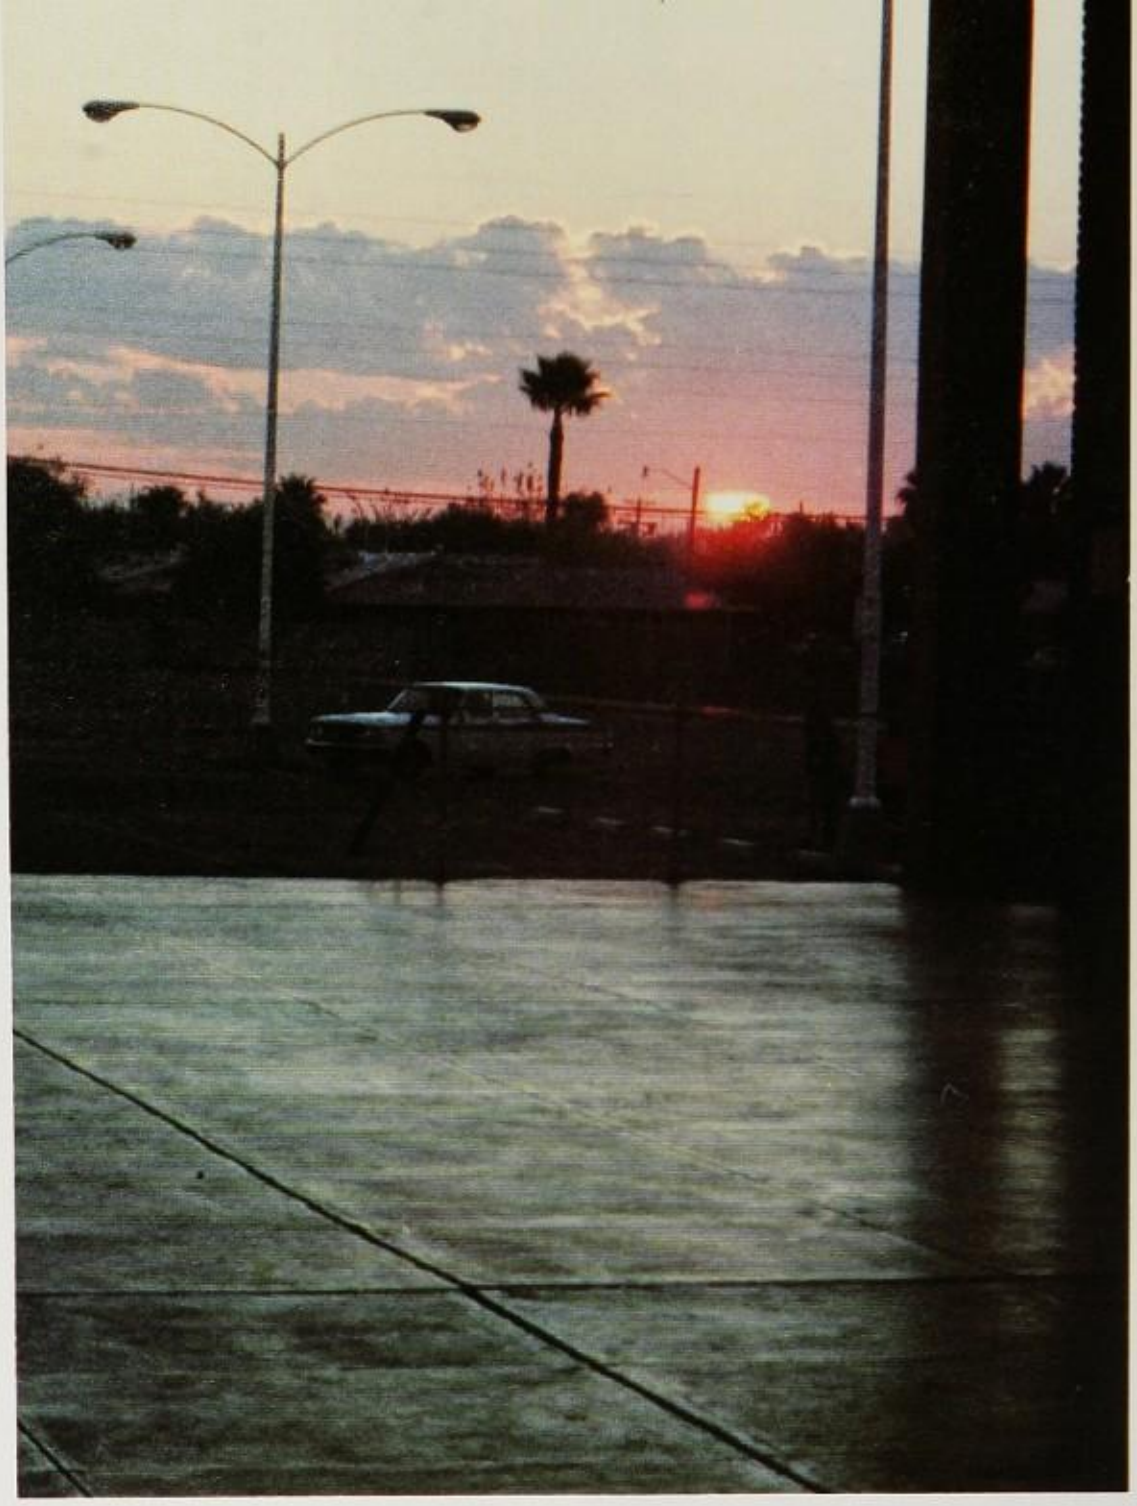
MRS. BONNIE WOOD



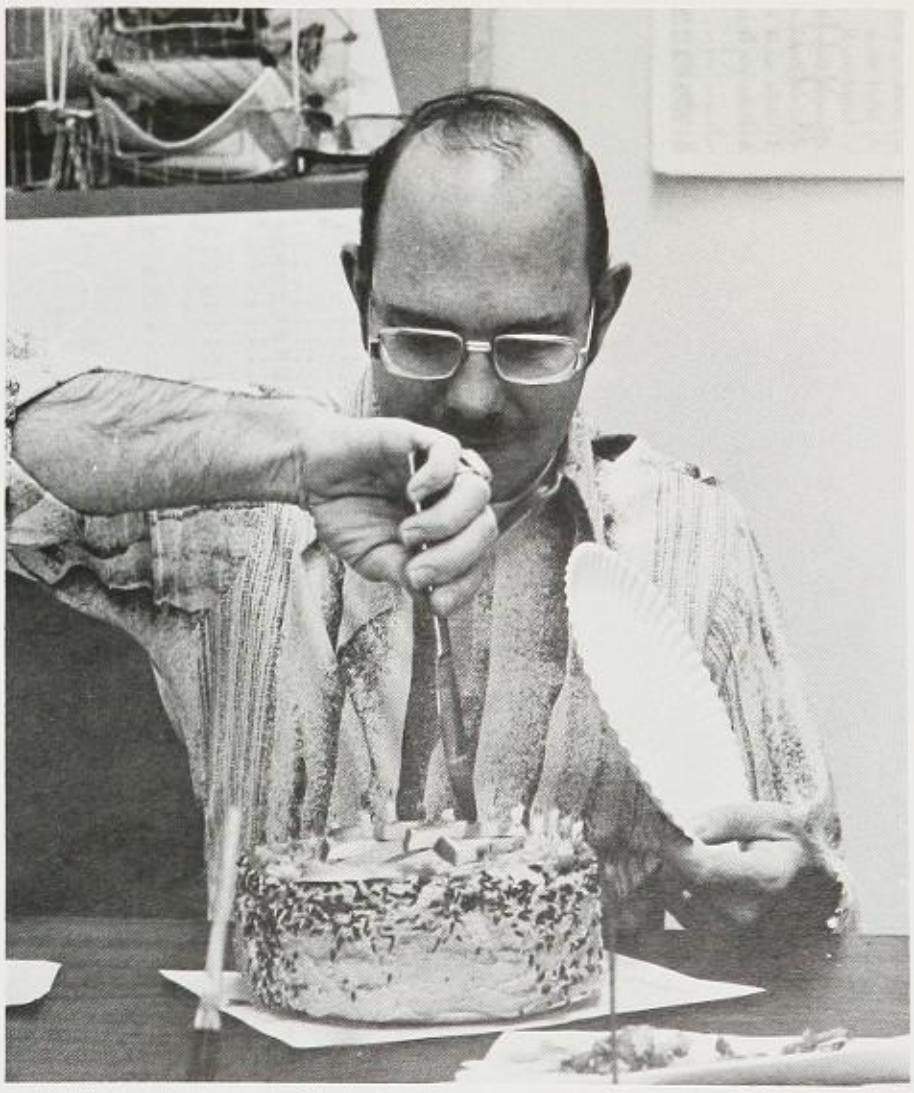


Life at Alhambra is one CELEBRATION always to be remembered by all. The best years shared are those of one's high school years.

As another year goes by we look back on good times we had: the band playing ... crowds cheering ... friendships.

In the future we'll be going on to bigger and better things with our eternal CELEBRATION of life.

ALHAMBRA HIGH SCHOOL



CELEBRATIONS come in many different ways: the winning and losing of athletic events . . . electing our friends for Homecoming nominees and seeing them crowned . . . attending Homecoming and feeling the excitement . . . commemorating our Nation's 200th birthday and being filled with pride . . . sensing accomplishments and freedom at graduation.

America's Past dominates Homecoming

Alhambra's '75 Homecoming attempted to bring America's heritage into every activity. All week during lunch hours, there were various activities and contests, such as Uncle Sam lookalikes, cherry pie eating contest, football slave sale, square dancing, and George Washington "crossing the Delaware." Sophomores showed most spirit and won many of the activities.

The Homecoming assembly was quite a spirited occasion, with the DECA Rabbit and friends giving Mr. Goodwin the balloons for a traditional send off. Homecoming nominees were announced and students voted during lunch hour.

Alhambra's Queen and King were Anna Canez and Randy Hardison. During halftime the floats were presented with the Senior Class "American flag" taking first place. The Junior Class helped sponsor the fireworks show. The Lions ended with a 37-21 victory over Carl Hayden.

DECA Rabbit and Alhambra Lion ham it up with Laura Gillie and Kathy Strube during the spirited Homecoming assembly.

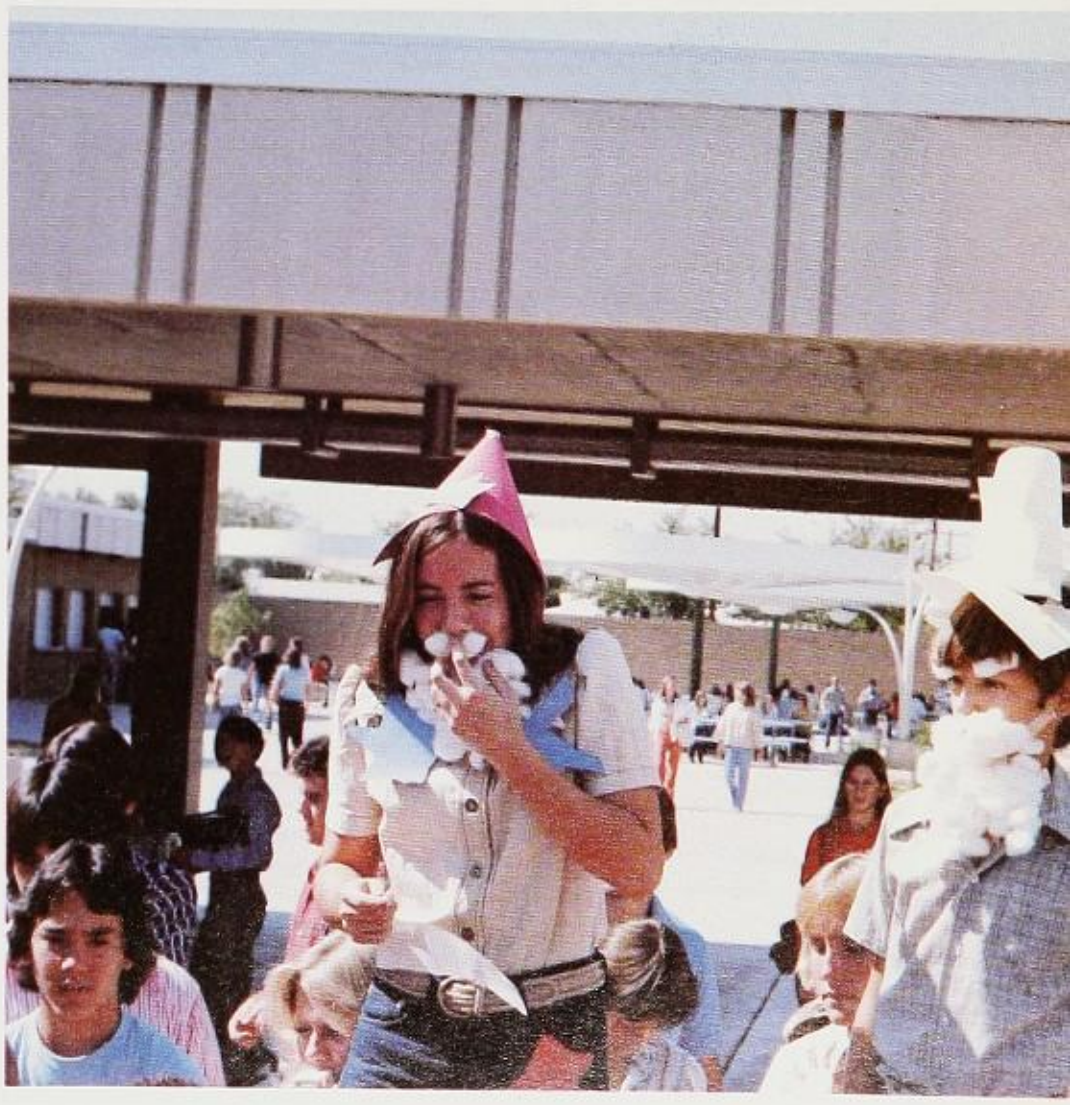
Japanese educators visiting Alhambra are seen during the Homecoming assembly talking with administrators and students.

King Randy Hardison escorts Queen Anna Canez for a traditional walk after being elected during halftime ceremonies.

Last year's Homecoming Royalty, Babette D'Agostino and Ronald Woodson, are on hand to crown the '75 King and Queen.

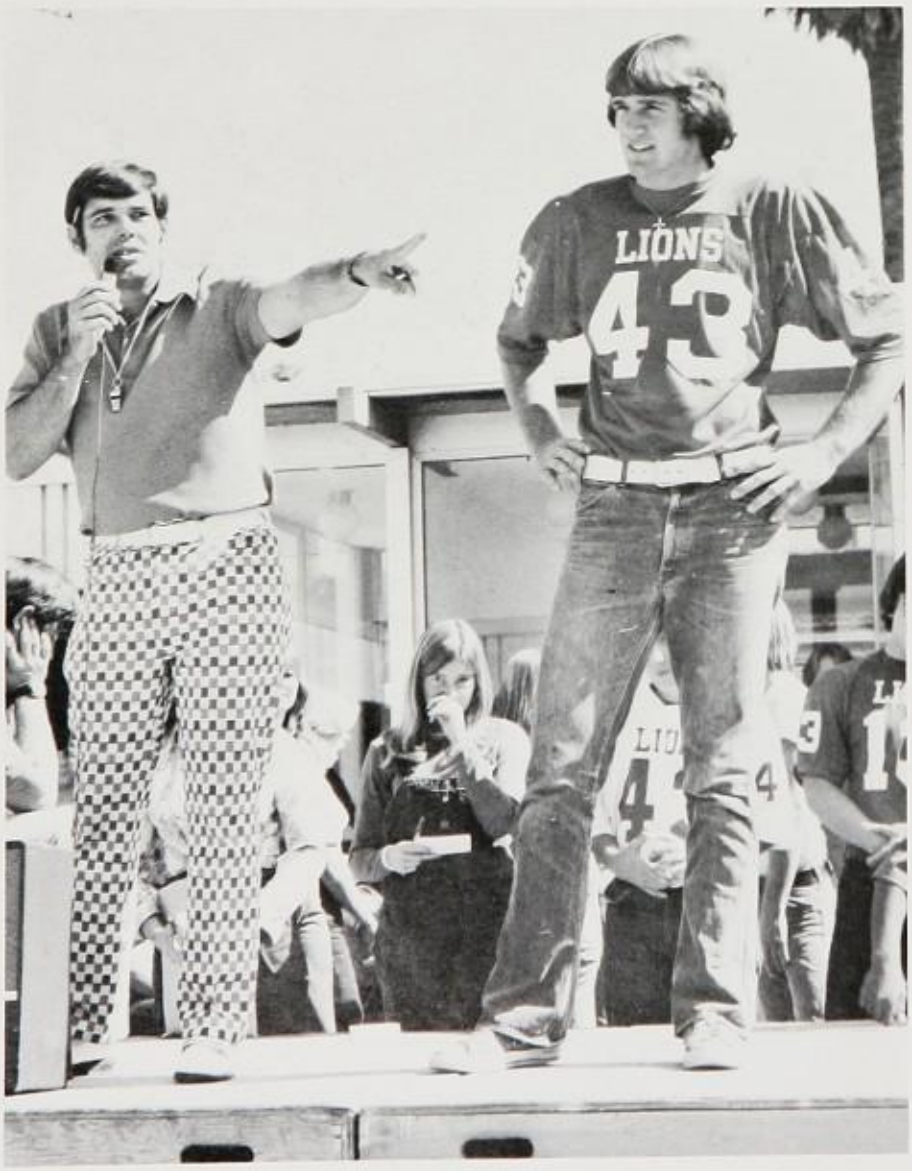
Students strive to reach shore first in a fast moving contest of skill, a reenactment of Washington's "crossing the Delaware."

One of the more inspiring activities during Homecoming Week is the Uncle Sam lookalike contest. Students participate during lunch hours.



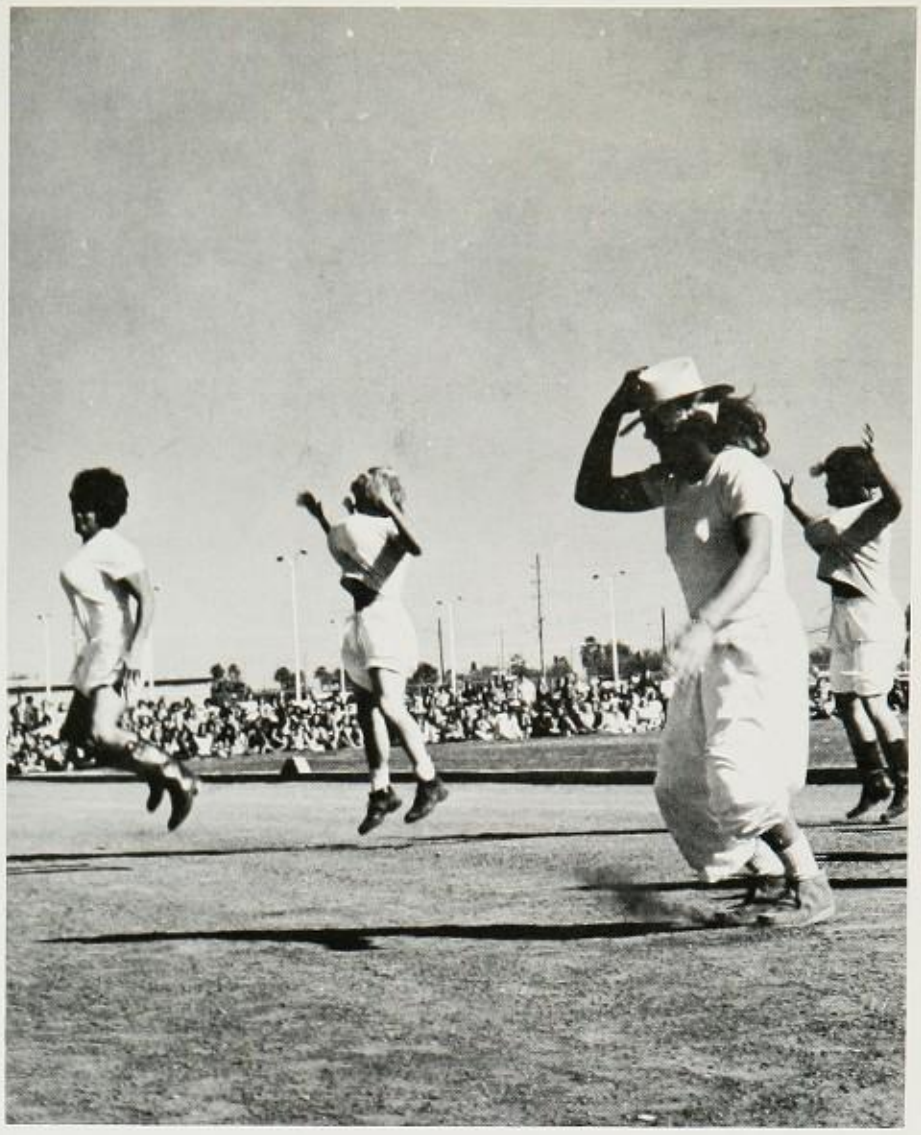
Square dance group provides promenading fun during lunch hours as one of the Homecoming Week events.

John Meyer is up for grabs, girls, as Coach Culbertson proclaims his worth.



Oh, what a terrible, tangled web they weave! Lee Schnabel looks to the crowd for help as he struggles to untangle restraining ropes.

DECA Rabbit, Debbie Walker, and Julie Nelson pose with traditional Homecoming balloons at the Homecoming assembly.



Unique assets are called for in a cheerleader; these spirited girls certainly have what it takes.

During the lunch hours, the student body votes for Homecoming Royalty, choosing from the nominees.

An AHS Lion kicks the extra point off, showing the great form that beat the Carl Hayden Falcons 37-21.

POMS boost spirit with new dances

Captain Lori Waddell and co-captain Anna Canez led the all new members of Alhambra's '75-'76 Pom Pon line. The girls attended all football and basketball games, plus the volleyball and cross-country meets. They attended special events such as the State Fair and marched in the Rodeo Parade.

The Poms added style to the old dance routines and came up with some new ones to give more variety to the crowds. They really boosted spirit during Homecoming, pep assemblies, and games throughout the year.

The girls attended Kachina Camp during the summer and brought back several awards, including the Spirit Doll and many ribbons.

Kandy, Anna, and Tammy conjure spirits in more than one at the game against North!

Varsity cheers rally Alhambra Lions

Martha Troutt and Traci Major perform one of the cheer routines for the crowds. The winter sports teams were introduced at this first pep assembly of the year.

Alhambra's 1975-76 Varsity Cheer Line had a truly lively year. Led by Captain Traci Major, the Cheer Line performed many routines to help raise spirit at all athletic events and pep assemblies during the year.

Along with the poms, the cheerleaders had fun decorating the locker rooms, providing refreshments, and generally raising the morale of the teams.

In addition to Captain, Kathy Strube served as Co-captain, and for the first time the girls had a Secretary, Martha Troutt.

During the summer, the Cheers attended Kachina Camp and competed in various contests. Both as a group and individually, the girls brought home high honors.

BELOW-VARSITY CHEER LINE: Sheryl Semmens, Linda Jackson, Maria Venetis, Martha Troutt, Kathy Strube, Traci Major, Diana Espinoza, Maureen Patterson.

Rachel Hernandez pilots JV cheers

JV CHEERS-FRONT: Marie Jorgensen, Karri Long, Helen Kreipel. BACK: Laura Moreno, Joni Austin, Captain Rachel Hernandez. NOT PICTURED is Bonnie Sharp.

This year's J.V. Cheers provided a variety of interesting routines and cheers at all home J.V. games during the fall and winter. They continued to boost spirit and morale at the J.V. basketball games and various pep assemblies during the entire year.

Led through a successful year by Captain Rachel Hernandez and Co-captain Helen Kreipel, the J.V. Cheers performed with the Varsity Cheers at the different assemblies and activities throughout the year.

Their entertaining routines and spirited cheers were appreciated at the games in addition to the refreshments they served the players afterwards.

The J.V. Cheers also had many fund raising events to earn money for their various functions during the year.

During the summer the girls attended Kachina camp where they participated in various competitions and brought back several ribbons.

JV Cheers Bonnie Sharp, Joni Austin, and Helen Kreipel entertain the crowds at the pep assembly as the football players look on.

Showing the versatility and talent of the JV Cheers, Helen, Joni, Bonnie, and Marie Jorgensen do one of the more difficult routines.

Captain Arlis Wootton performs during fourth hour practice. The Majorettes meet every day during this hour and march with the band.

With a look of rapture on her face, Leigha Davidson perfects her routine. The girls had red, white, and blue costumes this year.

Majorettes take first place as team

An integral part of any football game or marching band, the '75-'76 AHS Majorettes were led by Captain Arlis Wootton. Besides performing at all home football games, the Majorettes also twirled at basketball home games, and pep assemblies. The girls also had the honor of marching in the Rodeo Parade in March, and twirled at the State Fair. Arlis and Laurie twirled light batons at the December Student-Teacher Talent Show.

The Majorettes entered various competitions during the year, and placed high both individually and won first place as a team in the U.S.A. contests in November.

This year, as America celebrates the Bicentennial, the Majorettes donned costumes of red, white, and blue to commemorate the "Spirit of '76." The girls had various bake sales during the year to raise the funds to pay for their costumes.

MAJORETTES - Arlis Wootton, Connie Martin, Laurie Nelson, and Leigha Davidson.

Modern Dance has "gift" of expression

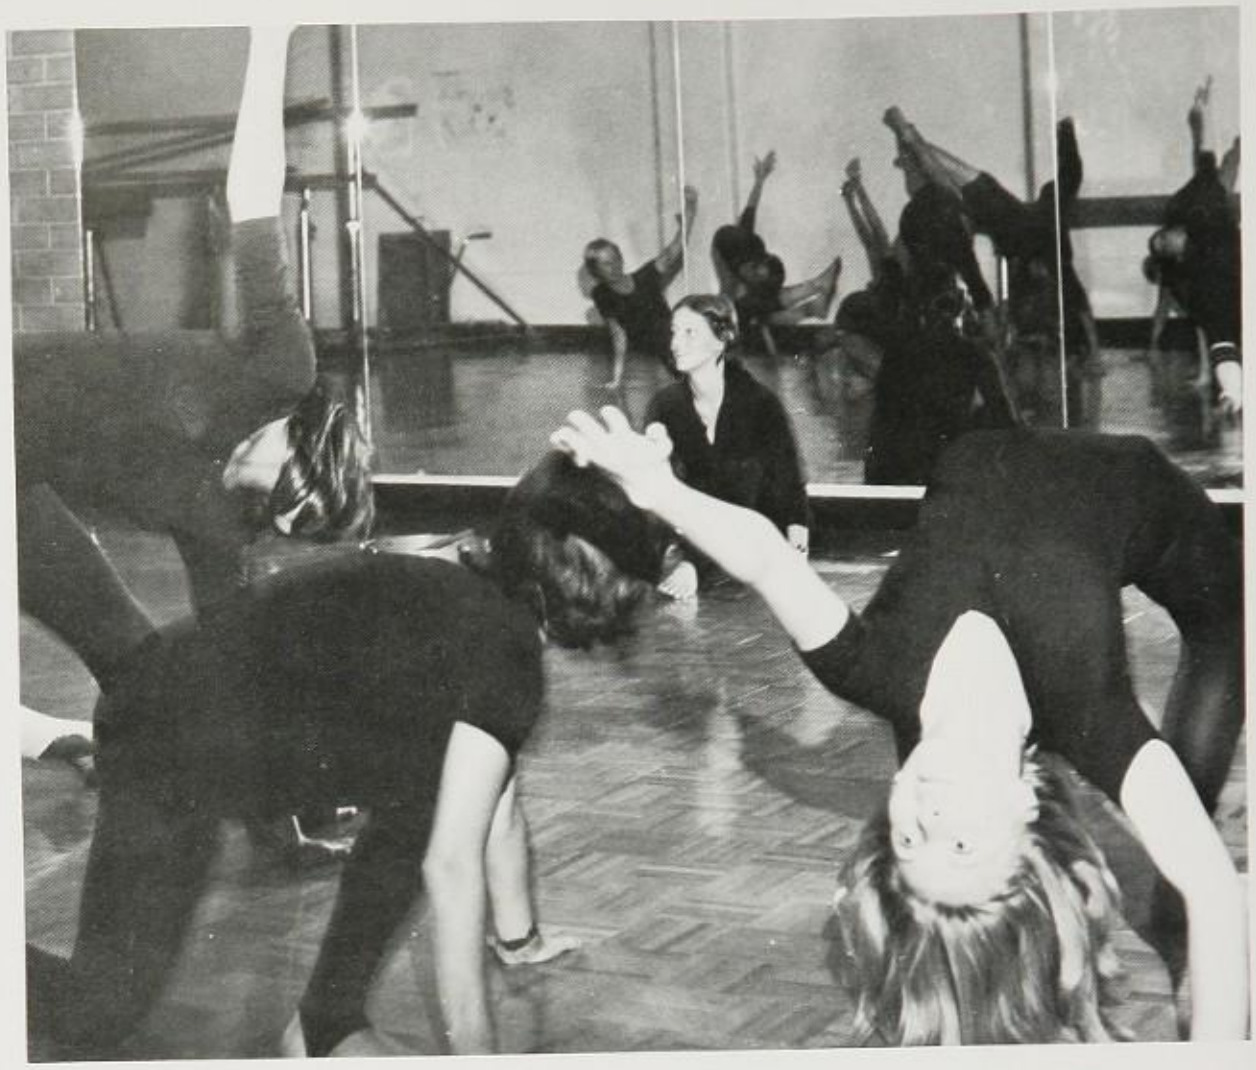
Modern Dance class is a study of coordination and expression of feelings and ideas. In the elective class, students learn about famous, well known dancers and their techniques. The students then take what they have learned and create their own dances, called studies.

Miss Malenfant directs the Beginning, Advanced, and Performance dance classes. During the first semester the girls had a student teacher, Mrs. Foucher, who brought her individual experience to further educate the students.

By the end of the year, after all the learning and independent work, the girls have a chance to exhibit the quality dances they have created in a concert in May. They performed solos, duets, trios, or group dances to best express themselves. The girls also performed special dances at the Christmas assembly in December.



Dance students are seen in two dimensions as they practice in front of the mirrors.

Expression caught in the mirrors; these students show some dance forms.

Mascots work to keep AHS spirit high

The mascots had a lively year promoting spirit as the symbol of Alhambra's active life. Appearing at football and basketball games, pep assemblies, and other activities throughout the year, the AHS mascots often proved that a true Alhambra Lion is strong enough to be gentle.

Led through a successful year by Captain Bridget Mahoney and Co-Captain Michele McCulloch, the mascots were kept busy striving to keep the crowds enthusiastic and supportive at AHS functions during the year. Students who wished to be a mascot were chosen on the basis of attitude and ability to perform.

AHS Advanced Band has another eventful year

As another year at Alhambra passed by, Mr. Lebs again managed to bring out the best of music and musicians, with an emphasis on the highest quality. With the help of officers Tim O'Boyle, President; Dana Frank, Vice President; Gerrie Harman, Secretary; and Louise Bosson, Treasurer; he led the Advanced Band through another successful year.

Drum Major Jim Groff led the band onto the field at every home football game and played during halftime at the basketball games. They also performed at assemblies, marched in parades, and played at many other community events.

During the year, the band gave three major concerts, and also sold candy to help raise money to provide the band with needed funds.

Great music provided by AHS musicians

Three instrumental groups on campus, Orchestra, Stage Band, and Jazz Strings, performed for enthusiastic crowds at various social activities during the year. Conductors Pat Lebs and Almeda Boatright enhanced the creative abilities of the groups.

Orchestra members this year had the usual candy sales, bake sales, and car washes. The music studied and performed ranged from classical to contemporary selections.

Stage Band held captive audiences as they played lively music for the Poms, Majorettes, and the Alhambra student body in general. They also elected to play for the Alhambra Thespians' production of "Damn Yankees."

Jazz strings had its second year of active performance at concerts and community functions. Beth Montee served as manager of the group.

FORTRESS not built in six days

Editor, Kim Thompson, looks amused as she works on a layout for the Honors section.

There was little time for leisure in Room 420, the meeting place of the FORTRESS Staff members. As deadlines popped up, the tensions rose and many times a series of great jokes were enough to clear the air.

Editor Kim Thompson, along with Advisor Larry Cunningham, managed to encourage the staff to do their very best work. All people on the staff had their own sections to work on, and David Devine and Paul Moore managed to get the needed pictures.

All in all, it only goes to prove that dedication, enthusiasm and hard work make the FORTRESS.

Mr. Cunningham, Yearbook Advisor, is always willing to give advice to staffers.

SCIMITAR motto: Quality, not quantity

Constance Egter van Wissekerke and Mary De La Torre are both Scimitar reporters.

Every few weeks, Alhambra's student body had the chance to get a copy of the school's newspaper, the SCIMITAR. With the slogan, "Buy your SCIMITAR for only one thin dime," all members successfully sold their creative works during third hours.

Editor-in-Chief, Bob Napora, with Advisor Martin Krey, strived to cover all the latest happenings on campus and in the immediate community. Trying to steer clear of debt, and boost sales, the staff worked towards quality, not quantity. Of the articles submitted, only the best were chosen to be published. Photo Manager, Dave DeGroff, came up with some great pictures to go with the articles.

Reporter Susan Eifort looks up in surprise as FORTRESS photographer snaps a picture. Caught in action, reporter Gavin Harvey types up an article for the deadline.

Mike Solomon, reporter, looks thoughtful as he fingers through the filing cabinet.

Ingrid Willis, Managing Editor, talks over some points of interest with co-staffers. Sports Reporter Jon Heck is in a creative mood as he writes up copy for his section.

Thepsians present "Ah, Wilderness"

Richard (Pete Miller) puts down the Fourth of July as Nat (Richard Rousay), Mildred (Judy Hallada), and Lily (Sharon Francis) listen.

"A Book of Verses underneath the Bough, a Jug of Wine, a Loaf of Bread—and Thou beside me singing in the Wilderness—Oh, Wilderness were Paradise enou!"

These lines were taken from the "Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam, and inspired Eugene O'Neill to base his play, "Ah, Wilderness," on the ideas expressed in his narrative poem. Like Omar Khayyam, Richard Miller seizes the pleasures of the moment. At the same time he is trying to understand himself.

Thespian's presentation of Eugene O'Neill's play was performed in the Little Theater on five nights during November. Combining new talent with experienced students, Director Fred Snow came up with an interesting cast for the Miller family and friends. Pete Miller played the lead role of the fun-loving Richard. Lisa Williams and Melissa Hoffpauir were the Student Directors who supervised the cast and crew for the play.

Bartender (Scott Hoorneman) listens as Belle (Iris Nedbal) and a salesman (Scott McPherson) tell of the trouble he'll have after serving liquor to Richard, who is underage.

Meeting secretly on the beach at night, Richard (Pete Miller) tenderly embraces his girlfriend, Muriel McComber (Karen Aver).

Explaining that father has grounded him, Mildred (Judy Hallada) taunts Richard (Pete Miller) after giving him a note Muriel sent.

"MR. ROBERTS," "MARIGOLDS" big hits at AHS

Shipmates of the U.S. Navy take sights on the neighboring nurses across the way.

The winter drama productions this year were sincerely appreciated on Alhambra's campus. Both plays had a poignant ending that appealed to all viewers as they watched in the Little Theatre.

The Student Directors worked closely with Mr. Snow in dealing with the casts and crews. For the most part, the plays were accurately and realistically adapted from the original script.

From making a replica of the naval ship, to making a star out of a goat, "Mr. Roberts" was an all around success. The very touching "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds" was another hit with an adaptable cast to play the parts.

Mr. Roberts (Sam Glasser) is given an "and/or" propositioned by the Captain (Chris McPherson), which is really a blackmail threat. BELOW: As he prepares to water his plant the Captain finds it's missing.

Mr. Roberts addresses his men concerning the Captain's latest orders. BELOW: Mr. Roberts talks with seaman (Rick Lynch) about his new-found companion he has managed to pick up while out on leave.

Rick Lynch, Ed Vitez, Lew Myers, Sam Glasser, Tony Bua, John Vitez, and Pete Miller drink toasts in celebration as part of the cast and crew of the play, "Mr. Roberts."

The Captain's beloved palm tree adorns the space outside his quarters' door.

In "Marigolds," Sue Watts and Laurie Culver are cast as quite different sisters who are always at odds with each other over personal family matters.

Matilda (Sue Watts) affectionately caresses her pet rabbit. The rabbit is another source of discord among the family.

Sue Watts, Louise Bosson, and Laurie Culver reinact the nightmare scene in the play.

Matilda comforts Ruth as she rests on the sofa. Coming through the doorway is the old woman who is taken care of by their mother, Beatrice.

ROTC Ready choice students for future

Under the command of Sgt. Perry Gore, the ROTC program was filled to capacity this past year. The Cadets were conditioned as any defense organization with an emphasis on developing a sense of responsibility, respect for authority, and cooperative leadership among members. The history of the defense establishment in the United States was another study which was highly stressed.

This past year the ROTC groups had a series of inspections with a special unit to perform the coming out in early January. A presentation of the "Spirit of '76" was exhibited by the Color Guard.

The Cadets also attended the Military Ball, held banquets, and the Special Forces Unit also had regular and special field exercises.

The mixed choral group on Alhambra's campus is known as the Chorale. The group meets during third hour and the students earn a credit for their contributions to Alhambra's aesthetic interests. By the end of the year, two awards are given for the Girl and Boy of the Year to the most deserving members.

Throughout the year, the Chorale enjoyed singing at grade schools, universities, and various other places in the community and state. They gave several performances at school, including the Christmas and Spring Concerts. They also had various bake sales during the year to raise funds for the group.

During the year, John Hinton served as president of the group, with Tom Hannah as vice president. Chris McPherson held the position of secretary, and treasurer was Joe Hinton. Mr. Al Clifton sponsored and conducted the group.

Alhambra's all girl singing group is collectively known as the Choralettes. The group meets during fourth hour and also earns a credit for their excellent representation of Alhambra. An award went to the Outstanding Choralette at the end of the year.

This year the Choralettes were invited to various grade schools and community areas to share their singing talents. They joined with the Chorale for the Christmas and Spring concerts. The girls also had their Dime-a-Dip dinner again and members sang in solo, duet, and group performances.

Sue Watts served as president, Lynn Wootton, vice president; Renee Warren and Cindy Goff were treasurer and secretary, respectively.

Mr. Clifton plays piano accompaniment as the choirs sing at the Christmas concert.

In the traditional spirit of the season, Chorale members wear red and green outfits and sing glorious Christmas carols. This year, the Choralettes try selling something new: Cindy Cheever butters up some corn-on-the-cob for a waiting student.

Student Government sells painter hats

Alhambra's Student Government is composed of the Senate, the Student Executive Committee (SEC), and the Activities Committee. Each perform an important function on campus with students and faculty.

Many of the projects such as the New Student Breakfast, Christmas Food Drive, and the Ed Kirchen Fund Drive were sponsored by Student Government with the aid of sponsor, Tom Goss.

Activities Committee had a busy year, as usual, planning assemblies and helping with Spirit Week. All considered, Student Government again proved what an asset it can be to Alhambra's student body.

Rodeo Week has students participating

Rodeo Week at Alhambra was a riot of contests, activities, and fun. Four days in length, the lunchtime festivities during this time involved a vast majority of Alhambra's student body.

Earning most of the credit for organizing Rodeo events was Student Government Activities Committee. A lively imagination was needed to invent some of the new contests during the week, such as the Pinto Bean Races. Along with the new there were the old standbys like "Marryin' Sam."

The end of the week culminated in the announcement of the 1976 Rodeo Royalty from each class.

With the determination to "drink anyone under the table," participants in the Root Beer guzzlin' contest drink on.

Alice Meadows and Kenny Hilton sign their "Marryin' Sam" license.

HONORS

ALHAMBRA HIGH SCHOOL

Canez, Hardison Spirit of '76 royalty

Anna Canez and Randy Hardison look at each other with looks of joy on their faces while taking the traditional ride around the track.

During Homecoming week, the 75-76 student body of Alhambra were busy voting for the top ten seniors to reign at Homecoming. The two top students voted to reign were Miss Anna Marie Canez and Mr. Randall Roy Hardison.

Anna has been involved in GAA all four high school years. She was active on the Pom line her junior and senior years.

Randy kept active during all four high school years. He helped the Lions' football team all four years. During his junior year the students elected Randy to be their Student Body President for the coming year.

Larsen, Mahoney, 1st Attendants

Outgoing Denise Larsen served as Vice-President for her class all four years. Denise was involved in TRAGYC during her freshman, sophomore and junior years. During the month of November the administration chose her as the Student Rotarian.

Outstanding linebacker for the Lions, Pete Mahoney was chosen for first Attendant. Pete played on varsity football his last three years. He made first team division his junior and senior years. Pete was chosen twice for the most valuable player of the week for Phoenix Division.

Majors, Owens, 2nd Attendants

Traci Majors was picked to be on cheer line her sophomore, junior and senior years. Her senior year she led the cheer line by being elected to captain. Traci has also been a member of GAA all four years. During her junior year Traci was involved with Key Club. Traci's freshman year, she helped keep the spirits up for the wrestlers by being a matmaid.

Spark Plug for the Lions football team, Chris Owens has been in football all four years. He was voted to second Team All-Division. He was involved with varsity track his last three years.

Oishi, Aguilar, 3rd Attendants

Debbie Oishi kept involved with the school all four years. She was in Student Government all four years. During her junior year she was elected to hold the office of Student Body Vice President during her senior year. Debbie played tennis on the varsity team her last three years. She kept involved in GAA all four years. Her senior year she was chosen for National Honor Society.

Tony Aguilar was chosen by the student body to third attendant. Tony helped the varsity football team by playing halfback for the offensive and defensive teams his junior and senior years.

Patterson, Schnabel, 4th Attendants

Maureen Patterson was involved in Student Government her junior and senior years. Maureen was on the cheer line her senior year and involved in GAA. During her junior year, she was a class Senator.

Lee Schnabel helped keep the football team going his junior and senior years. He helped plan the assemblies by being Assemblies Chairman for Student Government. During his senior year he was Sports Editor for the Scimitar. His senior year Lee was Vice-President of NHS. Lee was an AFS finalist his junior year.

Alhambra receives Silvana open armed

I am Silvana Sebben and I come from Caxias do Sul, Brazil. My town is situated in the south part of my country, it has 150,000 people most with Italian background, a lot of grapes and the best wine in Brazil. We have several industries, a nice weather without snow, mountains, many trees and also a good Italian food.

My family is not very large: my parents and my younger sister. My grandfather and my aunt live with us.

In Phoenix I live with Mr. and Mrs. Hal Grover, my sister Jeanine and my brother Greg who both attend Alhambra High School.

Being an AFS'er is the most wonderful experience I have ever had. I'm getting to know not just different places or different people but myself too. In these seven months that I have been here I have learned much more things about U.S. than in all the books or magazines that I read about it. My life abroad has opened a new world for me and for the rest of my life I will never forget it.

I would like everyone to know that I love Arizona with its beautiful sunrises and sunsets. I used to think about Arizona as a place of Indians and cowboys but I changed my mind when I came to Phoenix.

In Brazil I go to school just in afternoon and never by car because we can not drive when we are under 18 years old. So the most of the 5,000 students of my school walk, during the six schools days we have a week. It is divided in three periods: morning, afternoon and night and all of the students have to wear uniform.

I think of Alhambra as a great school and I am very glad to be an Alhambra's student and for the opportunities I am having to know all of you are making my year in this high school so wonderful.

I never thought in my name as a very strange name or as a very difficult name to pronounce but it seems like everytime I say it I need to say it again. My problem was resolved when Mr. Goss found an American name for me-now I name-Silly.

Thank you very much to everyone, teachers and students who are making me very happy in my great AFS year.

Love
Silvana

Sharon Francis goes abroad to Italy

This year Alhambra had one AFS student. Silvana Sebben represented the country of Brazil. The summer of '75 Sharon Francis went to Italy to represent Alhambra. While there, Sharon learned that it's a completely different culture. Sharon stayed there for three months with an Italian family. She was able to go swimming everyday since she only lived fifty feet from the ocean. Along with the new culture, Sharon learned how to eat sea food raw.

This year Alhambra had two YFU students. YFU stands for Youth for Understanding. Representing YFU were Trina Ruud from Norway and Wolfgang Slepik from Germany. Both of them are really learning the differences between our country and theirs.

This year was another organization sponsoring exchange students called International Cultural Exchange (ICE). Second Semester three students represented ICE: Mauro de Cilo from Brazil, Martha Carisimo from Argentina and Jamie Rodrigueze from Chile. Alhambra was also privelaged to have four Vietnamese students.

Each year Alhambra has an AFS stock sale. This gives the students a chance to help bring and send kids to other countries. The students are able to buy a share of stock for 25 ¢ apiece. This summer Alhambra will be sending Nancy Johnson to represent Alhambra and the U.S.

During the AFS assembly, Sharon Francis tells about her stay in Italy.

Trina and Wolfgang are shown doing a Norweigian dance at the annual AFS assembly.

Trina shows the many ways the national costume of Norway can be worn.

Representing their countries from all around the world are foreign exchange students from different schools around the entire valley singing "It's a Small World."

Wolfgang Slepik imitates a yodel from his country, or could it be a wolf call?

Taking a break in between assemblies, the foreign exchange students from different schools pose for the FORTRESS photographer.

Jeni Yen presides over NHS

Jon Heck supervises while waiting in anticipation for the mistletoe that will soon be falling from Theresa Strednak's pruning shears; it is for the Christmas sale.

If you could sit in one of NHS's meetings you might see this. First, President Jenifer Yen would open the meeting and then turn it over to Constance Egter to read the minutes of the last meeting. Future plans are talked of and put to a vote. Some of these plans might be planning a party for the children at St. Joseph's Hospital, selling bagels or the traditional mistletoe sale at Christmas, or taking a vote to choose an outstanding girl and boy for a scholarship. Then, there's a motion to adjourn and the meeting ends up with refreshments.

This year NHS was led by Jenifer Yen, President, Lee Schnabel, Vice-President, Constance Egter van Wissekerke, Secretary, and Sandra White, Treasurer.

During the year the main objective of NHS was to provide service to the school and community. At the end of the year, scholarships and awards are given to four people.

Lions go to Divisional play-offs

The referee indicates that the Lions decided not to receive the ball on the first play against Phx. Union during the Colorado play-offs. All the seniors stand on the field.

The Varsity Football Team had the best season it's had in three years. They went to the Divisional play-offs and defeated Phx. Union. In the same night they played Camelback and were defeated.

The team was led by Coach Jack Kersting, who, in his second year of coaching, has proved to be an outstanding coach. Coaches Vern Culbertson and Mike Chowaniac were his assistants and proved to be outstanding as well.

The most valuable player for this year was Pete Mahoney. Pete Mahoney, Chris Owens and Les Jones were elected Tri-Captains for the season.

Jim Koressel leads JV team to fine season

The JV team showed promise for a future winner in Varsity Football. Their season finished 3-6-1, which had no reflection on the overall talent of the fine team coached by John Roth.

Their best performances of the year were against Phoenix Union on Oct. 16, and against Trevor Browne on Oct. 29. The scores were 24-0 and 25-0, respectively. These performances showed the great potential for the fine young athletes in Alhambra High's future.

The most outstanding player on the team this year was Jim Koressel who had an outstanding season.

Rick Bohl most valuable for 1975

The X-Country team had its troubles this year when a few members of the team got injured before and during the season. The team finally got moving in the last half of the season. The team's big win this year was against Camelback 27-28, on their home course.

In the Divisional Tournament the team placed second to South Mountain, receiving an outstanding effort from Rick Bohl and David Peiz by placing 5th and 6th. The freshman team looked very strong and Coach Morrison was looking for a good season next year.

Rick Bohl was the most valuable runner on the team this year and he was also elected team captain. He also made all-division by placing 5th in the Divisional and 15th in the State meet. Donny Mabry was the most improved runner on the team. He achieved this award by starting out on JV and finishing on the Varsity team.

BASKETBALL

Kemp leads basketball team to semifinals

Once again the Alhambra Lions placed as one of the top ten basketball teams in the State. They made it to the semifinals where they lost to Rincon High School. A lot of hard work, effort, and practice made the team outstanding in every area.

Larry Cook made second team All State, and was awarded the most valuable player from Alhambra. John Meyer was named outstanding player at State and received the award most improved player from Alhambra. Their hard work and personal initiative made them a real asset to the team.

Alhambra came out with the fine record of 19 wins, and 4 losses. When they went to the divisionals, they won two games and lost one. Many Alhambra students came to these games and showed their spirit and enthusiasm in supporting the team.

The team owed much of its success to the outstanding efforts of Coach Phil Kemp. He encouraged the team members to play to the best of their ability. When asked what he expected of the team next year, he said, "I was very impressed with this year's team, and have great hopes for the same success next year."

Dean Minster receives Most Valuable

This year's J.V. Basketball team had a very tremendous season successfully downing 15 of their 19 opponents. Their first five games went back and forth from losing the first three, winning the fourth one and losing their fifth one. Their last fourteen games were wins.

The following boys, Brent Jones, Dean Minster and Raul Ohton, led the team in scoring, rebounding, defense, hustle and attitude.

Individually, the boys made outstanding accomplishments. In scoring and rebounding Brent Jones received the honor, and for best hustler on the court and best defensive playing Raul Ohton received the honor. Dean Minster received all-around most valuable.

Raul Ohton receives a few pointers from Coach Nobley about the previous plays.

Angulo, Mabry, Teach most outstanding

This year's wrestling team got started off rather slowly losing the first two dual meets; but after the first week they caught fire and won their other eight dual meets. They also won in the Christmas Tournament and they took the divisional championship title. The team did really great this year placing tenth in the State.

Outstanding accomplishments were made by Don Mabry, Steve Angulo, and Don Teach. They were undefeated in their dual meets and received Christmas and Division Championship titles.

Baseball strikes up another year

The 1975 Alhambra Baseball Team forged ahead to win 25 out of the 29 games they played. Alhambra started a nine game winning streak with a game against North High School, winning 14 to 1.

In the State tournament Alhambra lost to Maryvale, still to place second in State. Coach Roth lead the team in this outstanding effort. The outlook for the coming year was bright and the boys were optimistic about going all the way to the top. The team was certainly to be congratulated on their success.

1976 track team off to a good start

The Alhambra Track squad had a great season last year. The team began a five meet winning streak in March, with a meet against Camelback. The final score was Alhambra 84, Camelback 43. Coach Morrison led the squad in another fine year, and there were high hopes for a seat in the State finals.

Softball team takes divisional title

This was the first year for girls softball. Over seventy girls tried out for the team and there were only fifteen places to fill.

The girls played ten season games. They won seven and tied one. This record qualified the girls for divisionals. After defeating Tolleson 13-3, West High 4-0, and in the finals, Carl Hayden 8-5, the girls took first place in the AAA divisional championship. After a number of days, the team went to State, but went out after the first round. Lisa Davis and Sheryl Wells were the winning pitchers for the 1975-76 record games.

Katie Nielson was selected for the first team all-divison and Kelly Morgan made second team. Judy Chase received honorable mention. The coaches among the AAA class voted on this honor by means of secret ballot.

The softball coach for the team was Mrs. Watkins. She's looking forward to a fine group of returnees for the 1976-77 season. Rita Brown and Sheryl Wells are just two who will be leaving.

Pat Ohton, Myra Owens most valuable for '75

Pat Ohton shows great form, as she smashes the bird in hopes for a point. Pat was No. one varsity on the team this year.

This was the first year badminton had divisionals, which was held and sponsored at Alhambra. The six varsity players all qualified. They were Pat Ohton, Terri Strednak, Tory Greigo, Kandy Hagermann, Sheryl Wells, and Diane Strednak.

All the girls worked very hard at practices and showed great ability on their match days. The girls who won 50% of their matches received a medal from Mrs. Stacy. All six Varsity players received a medal, along with their letters and certificates.

The most valuable player from Varsity was Pat Ohton. The members of the team voted on this award and Pat was voted most outstanding, unanimously. Myra Owens was most outstanding Junior Varsity player. It was Myra's first year on the team. She remained number one J.V. all season.

Katie Nielsen, Most Valuable for '75

For the volleyball team at Alhambra, the season was fantastic. This was the team's second consecutive year. Their season record for both years was 9-0; their total for both years was 16-0. This year the girls went to state, and were number two in the Phx. Union Division. They considered it quite a privilege to qualify for state, being one of eight teams that went out of Arizona.

Going to state undoubtedly inspired them to win. All the girls on both teams had an outstanding individual record of statistics; their leadership was a major factor too.

The teams said that none of this could have been achieved without the knowledge and skill of their coach, Mrs. Watkins. The summer workshops and camps were a new addition which improved skill 100%.

Katie Nielsen received the most valuable varsity player award. Sue Gillie achieved most valuable player on the J.V. team.

Lauri Merten, a sophomore, was the most outstanding on the team. Lauri went to the divisional golf tournament and received 6th place. After the divisionals, Lauri got to go to state and she received 7th place there. The girls' season finished with 3 wins and 4 losses.

Alhambra girls score another first

This year was a first for Alhambra's Girls Cross Country and what a tremendous season they had! Thirteen girls started and finished the season with eight wins and one loss. They finished second in the Divisionals with Debbie Cassity and Stephanie Rodamile receiving third and sixth place medals for their outstanding effort. The determination of all thirteen was certainly to be complimented as these young ladies ran their hardest in temperatures of 100 degrees to complete the 1½ and 2 mile courses. Never did anyone quit; they always crossed the finish line even if they stopped momentarily along the way.

Girls tennis has another smashing year

Tory Griego, a senior on the Varsity Tennis Team, gives it all she's got as she returns.

Last year both girl's tennis teams were relatively young, but still were successful. The Varsity team won 7 games and lost 5 games, and the JV team won 9 games and lost 2 games. The leading player on the Varsity team last year was Kim Bierl and this year on the JV team was Teri Sisson.

The JV team was small, with only about 13 people on the team. The Varsity team had about six on the team, and were hopeful for a good season.

This year's undefeated freshmen players were Sherri Hughes and Suzie Ziegler, with perfect season records. Also undefeated in their individual play were Teri Carpenter, Karen Selvey, and Susan McGrady.

Senior Sheryl Wells, a member of the Junior Varsity Tennis Team, prepares for a return. She's been involved with the sport all four years.

Girl's Track off and running

A Girl's Track member, Julie Nevins, is shown throwing a discus at the first meet at Alhambra. It was held in March.

This is the second year of the girl's track team and it was hoping to meet with the same success as last year's team did.

Coach Nassif helped the team tremendously with his coaching skill and encouraged new members to join the team.

The girls had spent a lot of time and effort to make the team excellent, and at press time they were experiencing a successful season.

CLUBS

Foreign language clubs study cultures

This year's Spanish Club was led by president Kris Ehle. The club sought to learn more about the Spanish culture and study the activities of the native people. The Spanish Club raised money with bake sales and car washes to pay for expenses on the yearly trip to Mexico.

The German Club started off the year with a school telegram sale that proved to be a great success. Some other fund raising functions were held and the money was used to help a needy German family.

The Latin Club tried to make the study of Latin more interesting for students. The club attended the State Convention at Tempe this year, also.

Science Club sponsors scholarships

Miss Soto buys something from the Science Club bake sale in the fall.

The Science Club introduced many new members to science this year with speakers and field trips. There were fifty dollar scholarships given to deserving members. The club was led by Jay Werne, president and Daniel Martindale, vice president.

The main objective of the Computer Club was to promote the use of computer programming through individual use. They went on many field trips including one major field trip. The officers of the club were John Carter, president; Edwin Barnes, vice president, and Bruce Turley, secretary-treasurer.

The Chess Club, under sponsor Jack Gibson, had a good year. They spent many hours improving their playing ability, and so did very well at state tournaments. They also participated at the Glendale Invitational.

Ski, Hiking have adventurous year

The main objective of the Ski Club was to teach students how to ski correctly and skillfully. To accomplish this they organized ski trips and showed ski movies. They raised money for ski trips and other activities by holding bake sales and car washes. All in all, they had a very active year. The Ski Club was led by Paul Moore, President, and Russell Tevis, Vice President.

The Hiking Club helped interest people in hiking with slides, presentations, and displays. They planned many hikes including one to the Superstition Mountains. The club was led by Archie Bushee, President; Jane Benedict, Vice President; John Ritter, Secretary; and Greg Arnold, Treasurer.

Bowling Club has striking year

Sponsored by Art Boglio, the Bowling Club had a great year. They met every week on Monday at Maryvale Brunswick Lanes. Some of the bowlers tackled the sport with low averages, but due to long hours of practice and perseverance, most finished better bowlers.

Although it took a lot of concentration and dedication, most members of the club found bowling enjoyable. There were trophies and patches given to the most outstanding bowlers.

The Bowling Club owed much of its success to its fine officers: Lori Eldridge, President; Robert Reniewicki, Vice President; and Cindy Goff as Secretary. Their hard work was an asset to the club.

AHS students show dramatic talent

The Thespian Troupe had a very productive year. They put on four shows that took a lot of hard work. The main objective of the club was to involve students, who are theatrically inclined, in acting as well as those who would rather work as a back stage crew.

The Speech Team encouraged people to show expression in the art of speech making. They attended many tournaments both in and out of state. They also hosted a novice tournament.

Club members party with employers

COE (Cooperative Office Education) was a club designed to make students entering the business world more aware of the various opportunities available to students who are interested in business. The Club showed students how to handle different situations that occur on the job. COE also held an end of the year luncheon to honor the employers.

President Debbie Heutzenroder led the HERO club through another fine year. The club went to the District Meeting, and, later on, to the State Meeting.

Clubs prepare students for careers

FBLA, under sponsor Jeanne Carver, planned many money-making activities this year. They held the Lion Sale and the Calendar Sale, which were very profitable. The purpose of the club was to assist young adults enrolled in business programs to develop vocational competencies and a sense of civic responsibility.

The function of FTA was to prepare students for a possible career in teaching. They worked towards this goal by assisting elementary school teachers in the afternoons. The club members received much support from the club sponsor, Mr. Wootton.

VICA clubs learn vocational skills

VICA, with sponsor Morris Russell, was one of the most active clubs on campus this year. The main objective of the club was to promote high standards in community service and trade ethics.

VICA Woods was led by Jason Tessler, president. Among their many projects this year, they held a Christmas Toy Project for Underprivileged Children.

VICA Auto offered automotive services to the students and staff at Alhambra. The club helped develop leadership skill.

DECA successful in fund-raising

DECA had many projects this year. They raised money for Muscular Distrophy and planned a field trip. They worked all year towards the local, Regional, State, and National competition with other DECA Chapters.

Such honors as Girl and Boy Student of the Year and DECA Sweetheart were given. To achieve the title of DECA Sweetheart, each girl must take a written test. The winner must score high on the test besides contributing much to the club.

DECA helps develop leaders in Marketing and Distribution. Many students have part-time jobs in the afternoon that helps prepare them for careers in these fields.

Clubs help students develop skills

The Archery Club at Alhambra did a great job of representing the school this year. They spent many hours improving their skill and participated in and sponsored shooting matches. The club was led by Bob Valenti, president, and Sheri Southerd, vice president.

The main objective of the Art Club was to provide opportunities for art related experiences. They had several guest speakers come to talk to the group about art and planned many field trips to obtain knowledge on the subject.

Wells, Heinsohn lead girls' clubs

The Girl's League planned many activities this year including the Christmas formal and the Tele-heart sale at Valentine's Day. At the end of the year they had their annual banquet where certificates were handed out and the new officers were named.

GAA provided an opportunity to participate in individual and dual team sports. They planned a flag football team and in the fall they held their annual slumber party. There was also a special award given to the outstanding athlete of the year. GAA is one of the largest clubs at Alhambra and it is one of the most active.

Clubs provide community services

The Key Clubs main objective is to bring assistance to those in our community who are afflicted with leukemia. The Key Club had a peanut sale this year and planned to hold a benefit to raise money. Every year the Key Club selects a Key Club Sweetheart. She is chosen on the basis of how much she has participated in club functions.

FHA was slow getting started this year. They did not form until November. Once they elected officers and filed their constitution, they became a very active club. Under sponsor Mrs. Batina, they provided many services for the community.

Greg Lee is shown presenting a "DECA + MD" t-shirt to the Arizona poster boy, Timmy. Tina Hagen was the chairman of the event.

Campus celebrates Spirit Week of '76'

Norman Jordan, Maureen Patterson, and others look on in amusement as John Meyers prepares to kiss an unknown cheerleader. Little did he know that the "cheerleader" was his own mother who had been brought in to play the joke on her son.

One highlight of Spirit Week was watching the Pom Pon Girls and Cheerleaders perform. They are seen here doing the Fight Song.

During a lunch hour, junior and senior boys competed in a basketball game in which the juniors were victorious.

Student Government had a sale in which students could buy links for the "spirit chain" to show their support for the basketball team.

The Pom line did many numbers for Spirit Week, including several "jazz" routines, that showed their talent and enthusiasm.

Another sale that was held during the week was the basketball cookie sale held by the Poms and Cheerleaders.

ACADEMICS

Administration works with students

Mr. Goodwin studies a form which concerns a matter pertaining to the progress of Alhambra. He makes the decisions which benefit all the students at the school.

This year Mr. Wellesley G. Goodwin encouraged students of Alhambra to get involved with the school activities. During his past four years he feels he has gotten to know the students and faculty very well. He has inspired a feeling of involvement among the students.

Under Mr. Goodwin's supervision, the program "Auydantes" was created. This program kept potential drop-outs from dropping out of school, and succeeded in decreasing their number greatly. Also, he implemented a new attendance policy which was instituted with the hopes of reducing the absentee rate among students. This program was felt to be partially successful, but did not totally reach the expectations of the administration.

Mr. Goodwin signals to students at a football game to reveal the score. He is often seen at many of Alhambra's games, and admits he is an avid spectator.

Department Forecast '76: electives—selectives

This year the English Department offered English 3, a one semester required course of all sophomores made up of American literature and speech.

Next year more fundamental classes will be required. English 3 will be expanded to a one year required course for all second year students. The usual selectives plus two new ones, Film Making and Advanced Photography will be offered.

Students take English as Second Language

The head of the Reading Department this year was Mr. Coffey. One of the classes offered this year for the first time was English as a Second Language. The addition was needed to accommodate many Vietnamese students attending Alhambra. This no doubt was a most helpful class. There was also a reading class this year mandatory for students who did not pass the MRPA test. This class used many audio-visual aids to make it more interesting. It also featured many timed readings to improve speed and accuracy.

Foreign Languages drilled by computer

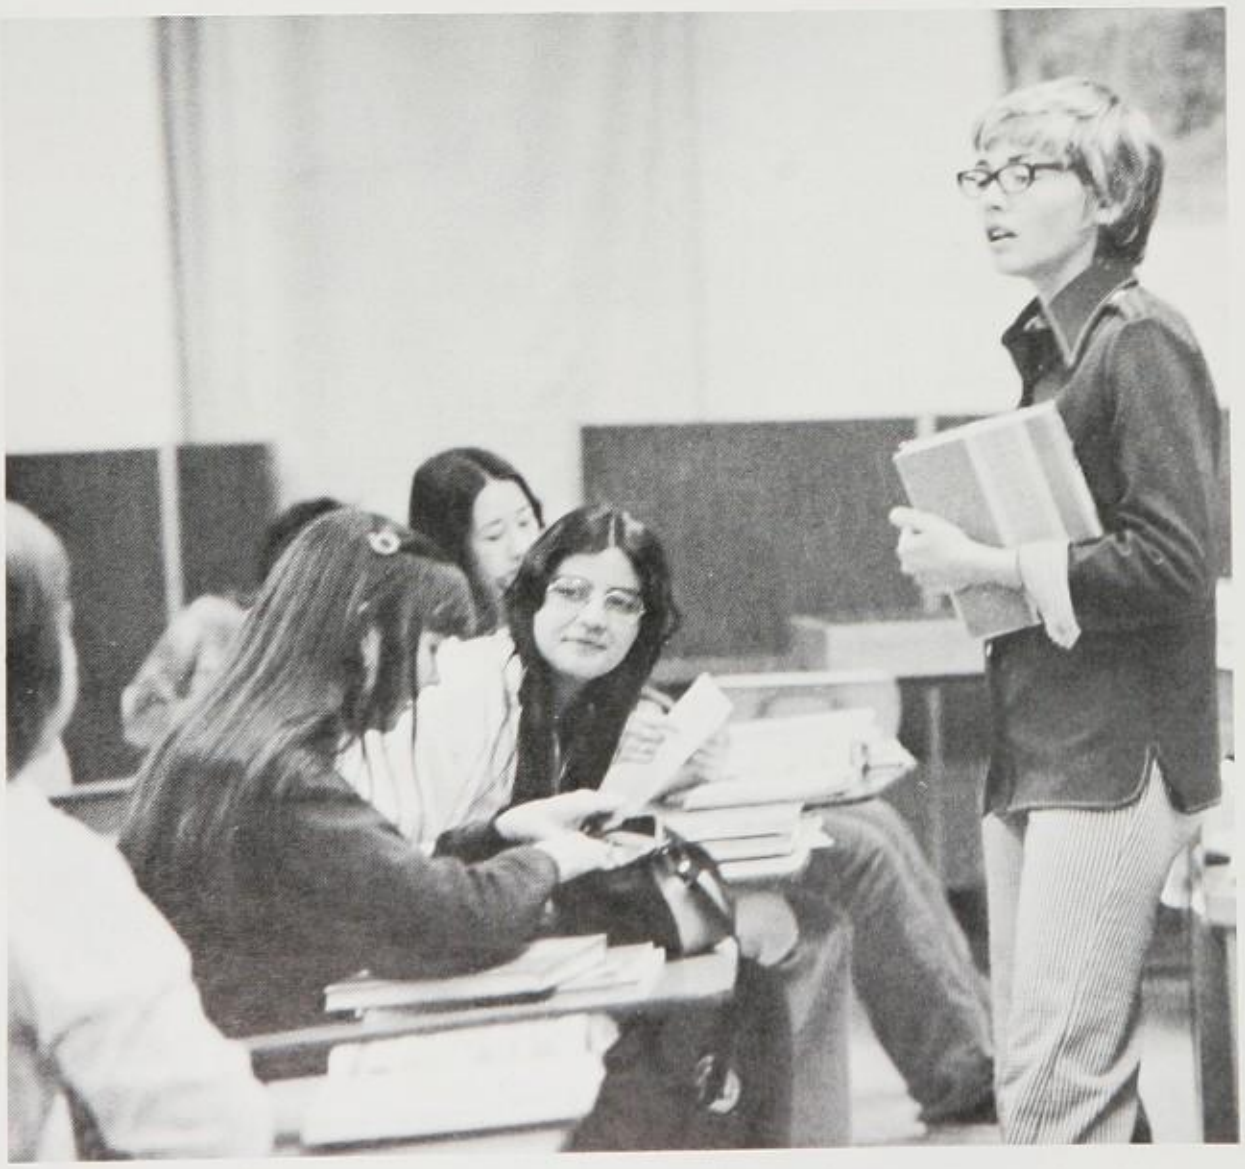
Students in Mr. Vachon's German class individually receive his help and Mr. Totheroh's.



Mrs. Kelly and her fourth hour Spanish class review a night's homework assignment.

Each year the Foreign Language Department not only stresses speaking, understanding, and literacy of a foreign language, but also contributions, culture, and customs of foreign countries.

This year the computer was utilized for drilling grammatical structures. Parent volunteers, who were native speakers, helped students with language problems.

Students were encouraged to use the foreign language more by visiting restaurants, movies and an anticipated trip to Mexico.

Home Economics meets youths' needs

Curriculum for the Home Economics Department was devised to meet the needs of youth. Not only human relations and child development experiences were offered, but also experiences in home planning, cullinary arts, consumerism and related occupations.

Consumer buying and occupational education were highly emphasized.

Art, music inspire creativity

The philosophy of the Art Department is that all students have creative ability. The job of the department was to give them an opportunity to express this ability. The students were able to use different and varied materials. By being involved in the program students developed self expression and a power of thinking critically.

The Music Department strives to expose each student to the art of music. The band and choruses gave students a chance to participate in a group effort. By taking part in divisional and state competitions, they strove for excellence.

Business classes inspire minds, skills

The objectives of this year's Business Department were to train students in those phases which affect every member of society, and give specialized training which will permit the student to seek gainful employment as a member of society.

The department purchased a new IBM Memory Typewriter during second semester. Seniors in business were given the opportunity to operate the machine through simulated office projects.

There was a variety of teaching techniques used this year. Stress was placed upon developing job entry skills on the various business machines and wise decision making concerning problems that will arise in personal or business situations.

Math basics, fundamentals emphasized

Each year the Math Department adjusts its curriculum to meet students' needs. A greater emphasis was placed on the basics and fundementals of arithmatic because of the basic-skills requirement. The basic-skills requirement has also caused the creation of a new course, General Math 3.

This year one of the objectives was to attract a larger percentage of juniors and seniors in mathematics. Another objective was to lower the failure rate at the freshman and sophomore levels.

Ayudantes new addition to department

The Social Studies Department this year had many different classes to offer. Most of the classes, such as American History, American Government, Arizona Constitution, and Free Enterprise, were required for all graduates. Other classes that were offered under Social Studies, but not required, were Minority Studies, Humanities, Sociology, and World History.

One of the newest classes this department had to offer this year was a class called Ayudantes. This was a class to help give students who dropped out in previous years a new incentive to come back and fulfill their required social studies classes.

Science Department gains popularity at AHS

The Science Department had many interesting classes this year. One of the most popular of these was Consumer Chemistry which acquainted the student with the uses of every day chemistry. For the more science-orientated student there were such classes as Chem-Physics and Advanced Biology. Science and Society, a relatively new class at Alhambra was a pilot program which taught how science and technology can benefit man and the environment.

Individual Participation in Girls Physical Education

Participation in movement activities was the most important consideration in Girls Physical Education. Allowing each person the opportunity to join in the activities of her choice in order to build a background of knowledge for a life time of different sports and activities was the goal of each instructor.

The present offerings in Girls Physical Education were self improvement, Dance Coed, Life Time Sports, Advanced Physical Education, and General Physical Education. The Program enjoyed great success as the enrollment was at an all time high.

Weight class popular in Boys P.E.

The newest and most popular classes in the Boys P.E. Department this year were the weight training classes. Some of the other activities that were offered this year in Boys P.E. were football, basketball, track, soccor, volleyball, wrestling, handball, tumbling, softball, badminton, golf, tennis, and mushball.

The Boys Physical Education program is the only area of the school's curriculum which provides daily physical activity.

AHS freshman stress togetherness

Freshman Communications was a class combined of social studies, English, reading, and writing skills. The class was taught by a team of teachers made up of a counselor and reading, social studies, and English teachers. In the class the students signed a contract to do a certain amount of work, and then proceeded at their own pace.

The biggest goal in the class was to help freshmen become acquainted with the rest of the school. Future years in high school will be much easier by helping them this way.

Mr. Wharton was again the department chairman for the Freshman Communications classes.

Programs aid Exceptional Children

The members of the Special Education Department did their very best to help and understand the students in their classes. This year in the Special Education classes, the freshmen in Mr. Anthony's fourth hour Class made candles for Christmas gifts. They were three dollar and fifty cents for students and seven dollars and fifty cents for teachers. The people who made candles were D.Andrews, W.Hankins, B.Higgins, D.Chavez, D.Hutson, W.Tommlen, T.Millons, S.Handerson, F.Furgeson, L.Gills, P.Boca, M.Porce, J.Acedo, J.Garlinger, J.Dougless.

Also the Resource Center had a craft Christmas sale. Prices ranged from seventy-five cents to twenty-five dollars. The gifts that the students made were macrame, jewelry, ceramics, felt items, necklaces, wind chimes, "Lion" statues, and Christmas tree ornaments. The sale was a great success.

Guidance Center great aid to students

Students and counselors work busily as semester schedule changes get under way.

The Guidance Center this year was a great help to the students, emotionally, vocationally and educationally.

A new program went into effect this year. Students were no longer assigned a specific counselor. Two counselors were assigned to career/vocational information. These two dealt primarily with seniors. Also, a new career center was developed in the library.

Mrs. Jeanne Morton, recordkeeper for the counseling center, is filing some records.

The IMC is a resource center for teaching tools, materials and ideas. All materials were made available through the center and must be devoted to the improvement of learning experience.

This year there was a new combined TV production area and a software preview area. This room was new to the IMC and offered increased usage of media.

There are many qualified people working for Alhambra this year. Among these were classes for visually impaired students and for students with hearing problems. Also, the school nurse provided us with eye examinations and hearing tests.

The third year of Alhambra's R.O.T.C. Department was led by Sgt. Perry Gore. R.O.T.C. develops in each cadet a sense of integrity, responsibility, and respect through audiovisual aids. Some of the groups in R.O.T.C. are Male Drill Team, Female Drill Team, and Special Forces Department.

Aides, Security help out campus

One of the biggest teacher assets this year were the teacher aides. They helped the teachers in various ways and made their work easier and quicker. The aids spent special time with students who were having trouble in a particular subject.

The Security Guards were also a big help to Alhambra this year. They kept the school relatively safe by keeping tight control on the campus. The Security Department was led by Mr. Smith.

Seniors await graduation ceremonies at end of year

The class of 1976 has been led by many officers along with three different presidents. Making of a Junior-Senior Prom and that of a class float have been a couple of the accomplishments of the Senior Class. The Senior Class float has won first place honors during the junior and senior years.

Robert Snead, Lorri Walton and Denise Larsen have been the class officers for the class during the junior and senior years. They had many chances to work around and for the students. The senate also helped the officers with problems and activities throughout most of the school year.

Junior Class Senate sells garters for Homecoming

The Junior Class of seventy-five, seventy-six did a commendable job in representing Alhambra High School. One of the reasons why they did so well was because of the help of their class officers. The class officers were very diligent in making sure that the Junior Class was recognized in its status at Alhambra High. The Junior Class also helped and participated to show how much school spirit there really was in their class.

A few of the activities and fund raising projects the class officers planned this year were things like making garters for Homecoming and Rodeo weeks. The Junior Class also helped prepare and arrange the prom. The class was also responsible for the great fireworks display at Homecoming.

Bercha Wycoff ducks from Fortress camera, while Kitt Ormsby chuckles as he does his assignment in Mrs. Friedman's Sociology class.

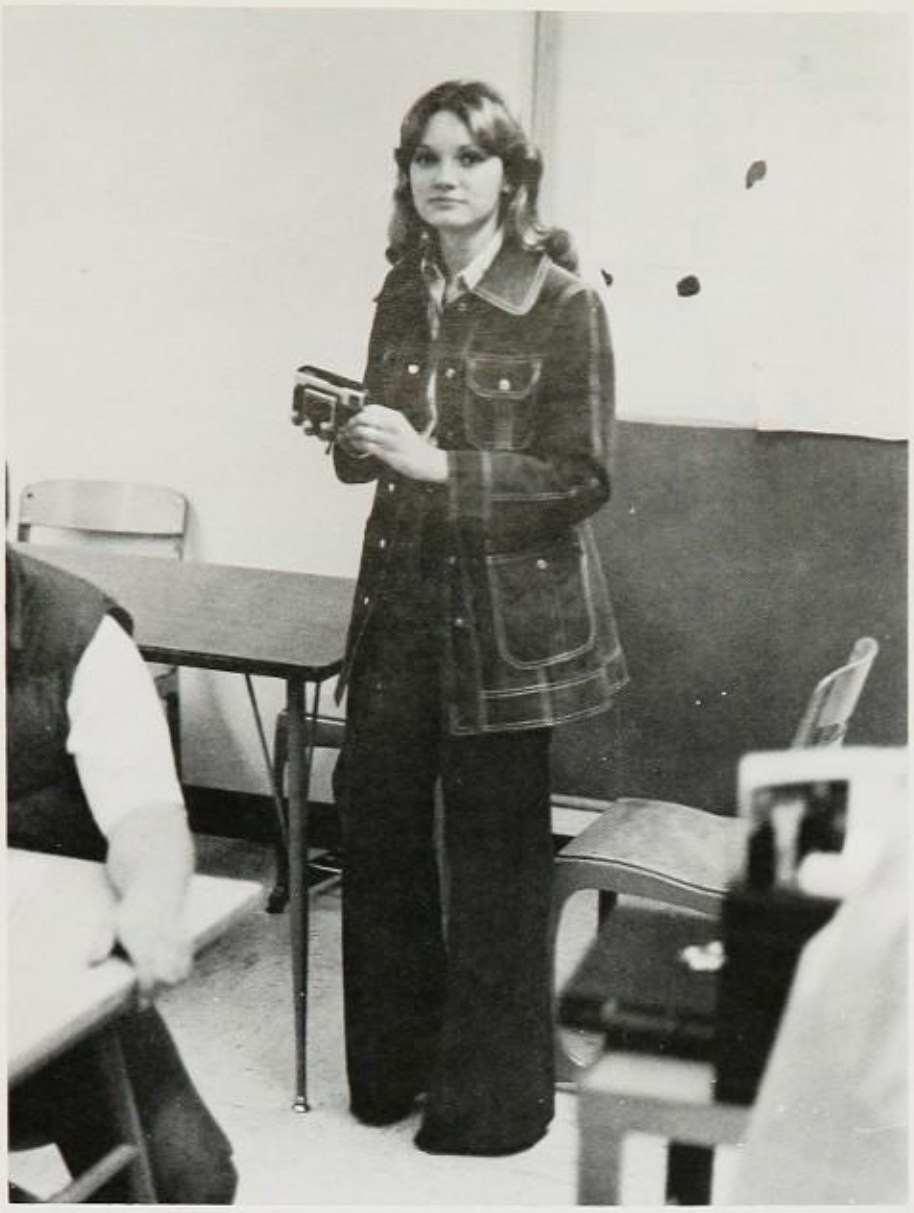
Kelli Kingdom, one of the juniors on the Pom line, shows that juniors can help show Alhambra spirit during the football season.

Mr. Goodwin, being interviewed by camera men from Channel Eight, discusses the attitudes on high school football games.

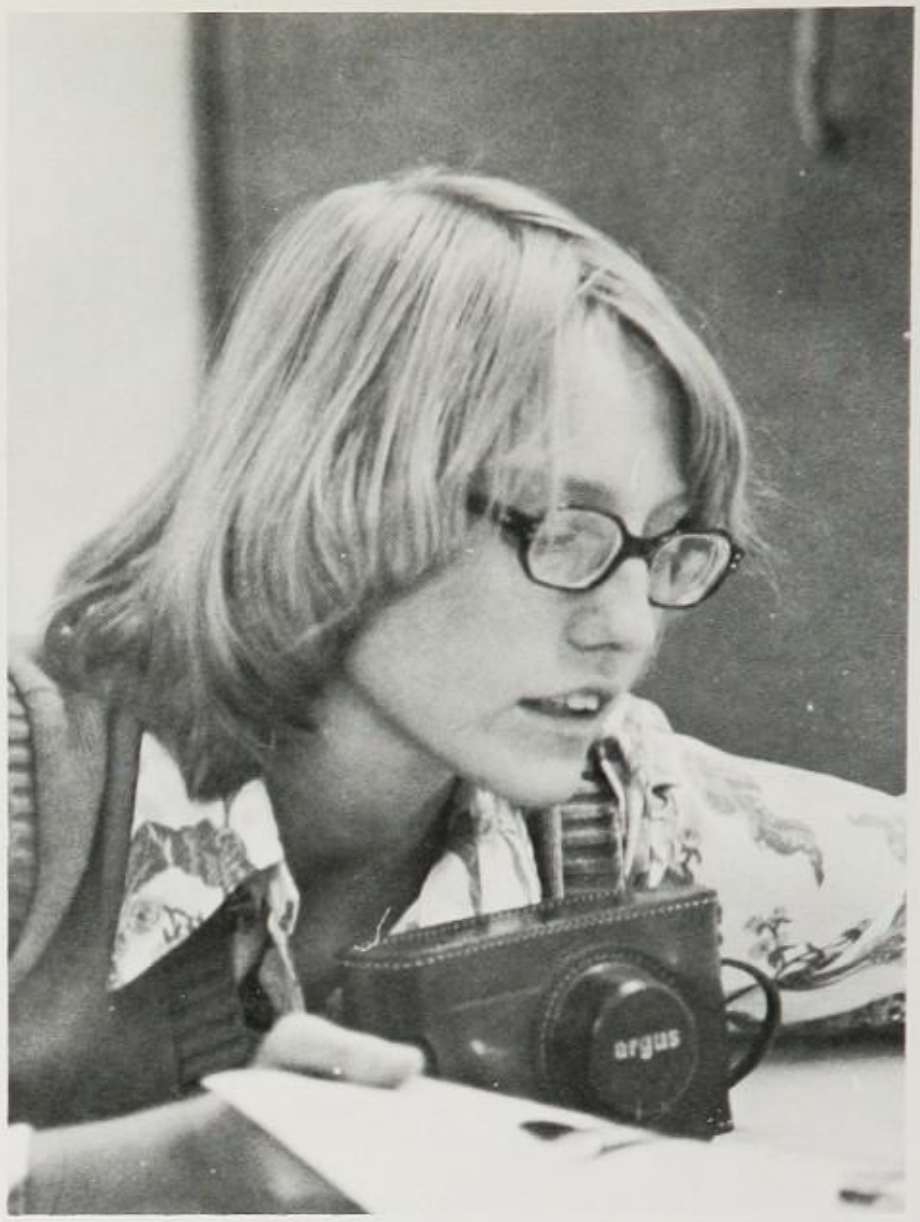
Students show their Bicentennial spirit by trying to cross the Delaware during Homecoming week in front of many Alhambra spectators.

Rene Soulvie, junior, "listens" carefully to her teacher as she is given an assignment to complete that day in Photo class.

Vanessa Holt listens to Mr. Cunningham in Photography class as he tries to explain what a tripod is and how it is used.



Carla Platt gets surprised while getting ready to take pictures.

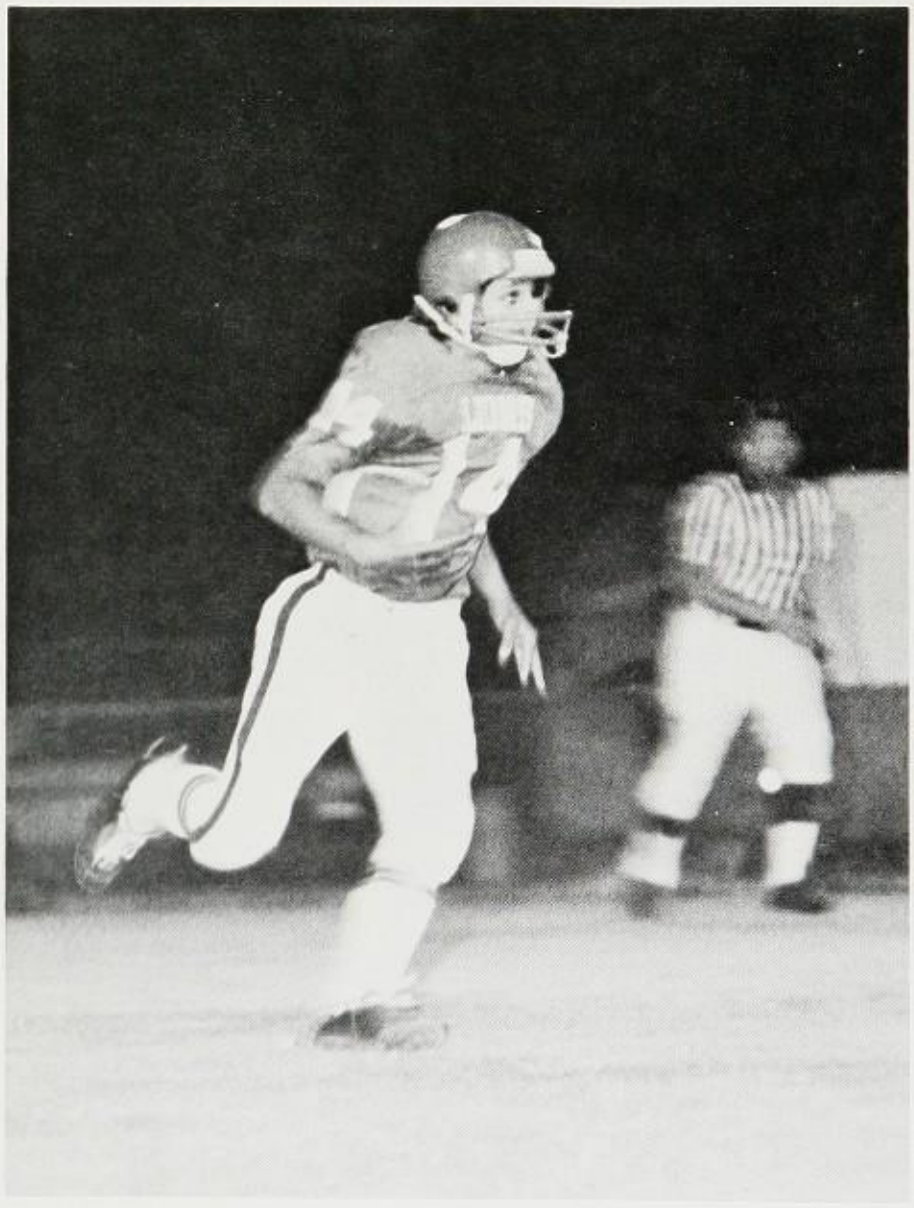


Ingrid Willis studies pictures she has taken in photography class.

Duane Largo and Scott Trantina give their teacher a hard time by laughing while she gives her class their daily assignment.

Cecil Ross, junior, shows how patriotic he really can be in the Uncle Sam look-alike contest held during Homecoming week in the quad.

Alhambra High students are showing lots of American patriotism during Homecoming week. Here students are "crossing the Delaware."



Dan Marcell, a junior on Alhambra's varsity football team, shows his talent by running downfield trying to score for his team.

Sophomore Class builds school spirit

The class of seventy-eight was the second largest class on campus. This year the main objectives of the Sophomore Class was to get more students involved in school activities, and also to build school spirit.

This year sophomores had two required courses: Arizona State Constitution for one semester, followed by Health Education.

The class of seventy-eight was led this year by class officers Julie Nevins, president; Roseann Lopez, vice president; and Cindy Trollinger, secretary treasurer.

Tortillas, cheese crisps add to class treasury

The new Freshman Class this year is the largest class in Alhambra. It was estimated to be over 980 students. Their new enthusiasm added to this year's school spirit. One of the ways they showed this spirit was by cooperating with the Sophomore Class in the building of their Homecoming float. The float was made to look like a birthday cake that read "Happy 200th Birthday."

One of the first things that this class did this year was to elect their class officers and senate. Also the Freshman Class raised money this year by selling chocolate candy bars, cheese crisps and tortillas. This money was put into the treasury for future use.

With John Tease as President, Julie Bishop as Vice President, and Susie Angulo as Secretary Treasurer the class got through its freshman year with great fulfillment. The freshman senators were much help to the officers.

RIGHT: Class senators were elected by many fellow students. They are Zoe Soto, Sandra Martinez, and Cathy Etz. They have done a great job along with the class officers. Freshmen now move up to sophomore status. BELOW: Freshmen vote for their officers and senate at the beginning of the year. This is the first voting for freshmen.

Helping Hands

Well, another year has ended and along with it another publication of the FORTRESS yearbook with the past memories and accomplishments of the year. This publication could not have been possible without Mr. Chuck Bursell, our American Yearbook representative and the patience he had when we fell behind with certain deadlines; Mrs. Virginia Poynter in the bookstore and the Scimitar staff for needed pictures. I especially want to thank Mr. Larry Cunningham for putting up with us all when we were stubborn, falling behind deadlines and not always agreeing with his ideas. He was always there willing to give help and encourage us when we needed it. To the photographers I would like to give a special thanks and especially to David Devine for the cover photo, for taking and developing pictures for us. It wasn't easy for them to have us on their backs getting them to do things all at once.

To the 1976 Yearbook Staff: Thank you for your many hours of work, your willingness to do the extras which made the difference between good and best, your ideas, criticisms and suggestions and the many times your jokes and smiles relieved tense nerves and made deadlines a little easier to face. Most of all, thanks for your friendship and letting me be your editor.
